FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to "THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION OF PHILADELPHIA," a corporation under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, the sum of _____ dollars, to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Association.

SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

ANOTHER twelvemonth has passed, and we would present to our friends a brief record of the success which has attended the labors of the Women's Christian Association in its varied operations during the sixth year of its existence.

Notwithstanding the months recently passed have been fraught with extraordinary interest, and great hopes have been realized in the success of "The International Exhibition of 1876," which has brought to the "Mecca of American Nationality" representatives from every clime, and all hearts have been filled with the manifold interests of the Centennial year, yet the work of the Women's Christian Association has been going on silently, unobtrusively and effectively; each department has been brought to a successful issue, and it has pleased the Master to vouchsafe a gracious answer to our prayer, that this branch of His work might not languish, either from lack of material aid, or zealous activity on the part of its managers.

BOARDING-HOUSE, 1605 FILBERT STREET.

There is no monotony in the usual routine of duties in our boarding-house. The ever-varying characters of our young girls, with their different needs to supply,—the despondent to encourage, the indolent to arouse, the afflicted to comfort, and above all, the thoughtless and unconverted to watch, counsel, and pray for,—all this prevents any wearying sameness in our service. We learn in our household of forty, that different moral natures require in their healthful development widely different treatment, and in our study and efforts to accomplish this, we have ample and most interesting work.

We report very gratefully the unusual good health of the family during the past year ; there have been some cases where the skill of the physician was needed, and to these Dr. Hamilton Osgood has most kindly and efficiently rendered his services gratuitously.

We deem it advisable in each Annual Report to give our requisites for admission. The applicant must be under twenty-five years of age ; without a protector in the city ; supporting herself, or being fitted to do so ; must furnish two references for respectability, and her weekly income must not exceed six dollars. The terms for board are $2.50 or $3.00 per week, with an extra charge of thirty-eight cents for washing and ironing.

On the opening of the Centennial Exhibition, we decided to reserve three rooms in this house for the accommodation of visitors from other Associations ; regretting that in justice to our regular boarders we could do no more. These rooms were well filled, and we were able to entertain seventy-three guests. From this additional income we realized a sum sufficient to enable us to do some needful painting and replenishing.

We have received in the last twelve months a large number of applications for board, but have been able to receive only seventy-eight persons. Our house continues self-supporting, and again must we urge the great need of establishing others. When shall we have in different parts of our city such homes for the numberless young girls who fill our factories and stores, and who need just such care and guidance ? and when, too, shall we have another boarding-house for some of the many applicants over twenty-five years of age, who say to us, "Why is there no such boarding house for us ? We have toiled longer than your young girls, our incomes are as slender as theirs, and our wants as many. We cannot prevent the years coming on, and is it not hard that this debars us from a home so greatly needed ?"

Our daily family worship and weekly Bible class are still sustained, and a growing interest is manifested. Very many of our boarders gratefully appreciate the comforts that surround them, and we are assured that our object in providing for the temporal wants of these friendless young girls has been attained. We are not without precious proof, also, that our Heavenly Father has been pleased to bless our efforts in ministering to their spiritual needs. We will mention the case of one who was rescued from the very verge of ruin, and who, having left us, now fills successfully a position of usefulness. She says, "I am sure my Heavenly Father has forgiven my sins, because He has so richly blessed me, and given me such happiness and peace; but my happiness and my all I owe to the influence of your Christian Association, which led me from evil unto good." Is not this one incident sufficient to stimulate us to renewed exertion in shielding from temptation those who so greatly need our prayerful protection?

NOS. 139 AND 141 NORTH SEVENTH STREET.

The results of the past year in our dining-room and temporary lodging departments have been most gratifying. The chairman of the Supply Committee in a recent report says: "It is unnecessary to speak of the success which has crowned our efforts in the Seventh Street House. Surely the blessing of our kind Heavenly Father is resting upon us, and to Him be all the glory. We are enjoying a much larger patronage than the corresponding time last year."

Special thanks are due to the courtesy of Dr. G. B. Dunmire, who has responded promptly and gratuitously to the many calls upon him for attendance in the house.

Our dining-room is open daily, from 12 to 3, where meals can be obtained at prices within the reach of all, varying from five to twenty-five cents. We found it necessary to increase the price of lodgings from ten to twenty cents per night, in order that the more worthy class might not be incommoded by those whose habit it is to live upon the public, and the result has been, as we anticipated, beneficial to those most in need.

In compliance with many requests from other Associations, and the oft-repeated inquiry relative to securing accommodations at once safe and economical for women desiring to visit the Exhibition, the same arrangements, on a somewhat more extended scale, were made here as in our Filbert Street House. During the six months of the Exhibition hundreds of women from various parts of the country gladly availed themselves of this comfortable home, and the extra effort has been rewarded by a surplus, which has been appropriated toward reducing one of the mortgages still resting upon the house.

During the past year we have supplied 64,342 meals and 5,520 lodgings.

EMPLOYMENT COMMITTEE.

The total number of names on the register of the Employment Branch is 7,316 ; of these 1,322 were registered during the past year, all of whom gave satisfactory reference as to character, &c. ; 1,056 have been provided with employment, the larger number obtaining situations in respectable families in the city or its vicinity. When we state that the number of employers registered during the year is 2,311, we are convinced that the public not only recognize the advantages offered to them by this department, but desire to aid and encourage it.

The work of this Committee varies little from year to year. Although especially devoted to assisting women in obtaining employment, they are constantly coming in contact with cases of great distress or extreme destitution. It is the duty of the Committee to inquire into such cases, visit them, render temporary aid, and do all that can be done to place them beyond the need of pecuniary assistance. It is true that there are numbers who, having no ambition or energy to help themselves, will ever need more or less of counsel and aid, yet instances are not wanting even with this class to encourage the Committee.

At the present time, our office is more crowded than ever before, the result of the long-continued stagnation in business, in consequence of which large numbers have been thrown out of employment. Wages are being reduced, and by the advice of the Committee, situations have been accepted without regard to terms; in some cases no compensation being received, except the comforts of a home.

It will be borne in mind that this Department is supported by employers; no charge being made to those seeking occupation.

LIBRARY AND READING-ROOM.

The increasing interest in our library and reading-room is a very encouraging feature in the work of our Association. It is a free circulating library for the use of women. Four hundred names are now registered on our books. To each applicant a ticket of admission is given, with the request that she shall furnish a signature of reference. We have twelve hundred bound volumes, several hundred magazines and pamphlets, two daily papers, and several monthly magazines.

It is very gratifying to hear the expressions of pleasure from those who enjoy the privileges of the library, and who eagerly avail themselves of the opportunity offered to spend even a few moments at mid-day in our pleasant room, which is open daily from 12 to 3, and on Monday evenings from 7 to 9.

A Bible-class is also held every Sunday afternoon from 2 to 3, to which the patrons of the library are cordially invited.

Our library is entirely supplied by voluntary contributions of new and second-hand books, and money to be invested in books. Under the supervision of the Committee, a series of literary and musical entertainments are given during the winter. Our thanks are due to the ladies and gentlemen who have so generously assisted at these entertainments, and especially to Mrs. Thomas Griffiths, for the gift of a piano, which will contribute largely to the winter's enjoyment.

The statistics of the library and reading-room are as follows:

Books taken out,	3,459
Number of readers,	2,521
“ letter writers,	146

VISITING COMMITTEE.

The Almshouse, the House of Correction, and Moyamensing Prison, still receive stated visits from this Committee. They also continue their regular ministrations in the University, Homœopathic, and Wills' Hospitals. In the last-named religious services are held every Sunday afternoon, and three times during the week. The Committee desire to express their sincere thanks to the physicians, nurses, and stewards of these various institutions for their courtesies and aid in many ways.

At the first thought, one would not feel that this is a remunerative work; yet it is; it pays well. Those who are engaged in it constantly speak of the return into their own hearts of the spiritual comfort they strive to convey to others. The sphere of this Committee is ever enlarging, only limited by the number of willing women consecrated to such work. May not some as they read this account, feel the still small voice of the spirit, whispering to their hearts, "Go work to-day in my vineyard;" if you do—Oh, be entreated, obey the call, and you too may rejoice in a like experience!

Early in the year a weekly prayer-meeting was commenced, under the auspices of the Association. It was held every Friday morning in the Methodist Church at the corner of Broad and Arch streets; the trustees most kindly according to us the use of their chapel. The meetings were well attended, and will long be remembered by those who enjoyed them, as blessed seasons of communion, in which the evidences of the presence of the Divine Spirit were most manifest. Many testified to their spiritual quickening, and advancement in Christian experience, and when, on account of the heat of summer, the services were discontinued, it was with much regret.

The time of meeting this season has been changed to Thursday at 12 M.

FAITH AND WORKS.

At a quarterly meeting of the Women's Christian Association, held April 28, 1875, it was unanimously resolved: "That a monthly paper be published by the Association, whose aim shall be to bring the knowledge of our work to the homes of the people, thus infusing into the hearts of all a love for Christian activity, and inspiring zeal in the cause of humanity."

In accordance with this resolution, the first number of Faith and Works was issued in September, 1875. The cordial welcome that greeted its appearance, and the hearty appreciation that has followed the subsequent numbers, give us courage to press forward in our efforts to extend the knowledge and influence of associated Christian work for women. Every year reveals more fully the magnitude of this work; the growing need for its expression, and the inadequacy of our annual reports or the quarterly statements, which are given to the public through the courtesy of the daily press, to convey to them any just idea of its extent and importance. This is the object our paper aims to accomplish. It is our missionary, seeking out the homes of willing workers for Christ, and carrying strength and courage to them; calling to the idlers, and bidding them go work in the vineyard; or perhaps dropping a seed in some careless heart, which may spring up and bear fruit unto life eternal.

It is true, the results of this enterprise are not seen in a large increase of funds for our treasury, nor in a definite report of actual service done, but when we reflect that nearly fifty thousand copies of our little paper have been put in circulation, each bearing its message of Christian cheer, its story of Christian activity, we must surely rejoice in what we have accomplished.

The paper has not been entirely self-sustaining, but over against the outlay, it is only fair to write some credit for the means that have come to us, directly or indirectly, through the wider knowledge of our Association obtained through "Faith and Works." For instance, many of our Centennial guests learned of our accommodations either through the paper itself, or through notices copied from it into other papers. We feel encouraged by the interest manifested in "Faith and Works."

both in our own and other other Associations, and trust the coming year may bring a more widespread influence and usefulness to this department of our labor.

An office has been opened in the Association Room, No. 141 N. Seventh street, where subscriptions will be received, and all business may be transacted daily, from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. The paper is published on the fifteenth of each month. The terms of subscription are one dollar per annum, payable in advance.

SEASIDE BOARDING-HOUSE, ASBURY PARK, NEW JERSEY.

The numerous applications for admittance to our Seaside House, proved surely that such a "House of Rest" was needed for the accommodation of working women, who could not pay the price of board at the usual resorts; that we might offer recreation and rest, with the benefits of sea air and bathing, to teachers, seamstresses, operators in factories, &c., at a sum within their reach. And this we are permitted to do.

Our building, over eighty feet in length, is surrounded by a grove of oaks and pines, and is surmounted by a tower from which we have a grand view of the ocean. The house contains forty-one rooms. The wide piazzas on three sides, with airy balconies above, supply inviting reading places at all hours of the day. The hall, twelve feet in width, leads on the right to a parlor thirty feet square. On the left is the reception-room, and adjoining this are nine bed-rooms. At the end of the hall, and directly opposite the main entrance, is the dining-room where seventy-five guests may be seated. Back of this are the kitchen and laundry. On the second floor, we have long corridors, with bed-rooms on each side, eleven by nine feet, which are well ventilated. The house was comfortably and tastefully furnished through the liberality of churches and individuals. The building was planned by Mr. B. D. Price, the architect who so satisfactorily remodelled our building in this city, to whom the thanks of the Association are justly due for his continued kindness and generosity. Although the capacity of the house was increased from twenty-two to eighty, yet it seems still inadequate to supply the needs, it being full nearly all the season, and at times applicants could not be admitted for want of room. The total number of boarders was 383.

The requisites for admission are, that the applicant be dependent upon her own exertions, and furnish a testimonial of good character. The board, at three dollars per week, or seventy-five cents per day, is paid invariably in advance. The time of stay is limited to two weeks. Full information can be obtained at 1605 Filbert street.

The Managers of the Association, with their lady friends, were privileged to visit the Seaside House during one week, from June 22d to 29th, at a charge of one dollar each per day, after which it was opened to the regular boarders.

The faithful friend of our Association, Mr. James A. Bradley, of New York, the original owner of Asbury Park, has again given us proof of his continued interest in our work, and his practical sympathy with it. In August last, he presented us with two lots in the rear of our house, adjoining those he had previously given us, making our whole property 150 feet in width, and 300 feet in depth. Very gratefully do we record this substantial co-operation in our labor. In the letter accompanying the deed for these lots, Mr. Bradley writes: "I congratulate your managers on the signal success of your Institution this summer. I am sure you have made many happy, and many who have profited by your labors will look back to the Centennial summer, spent at the Seaside Boarding-house, with grateful hearts."

One of our guests, in a letter written at the Boarding-house, says, "What a flood of emotions fills the heart of the visitor who stands upon the threshold of the Seaside House at Asbury Park! Admiration for the beauty of the building, and for the comfort of all its appointments; joy that so fair a spot is dedicated to weary ones, who shall find within its walls the rest and refreshment so sorely needed; thankfulness that Christian women have been permitted to do this work; and, above all, gratitude to the Giver of all good, who has so crowned their labors with success."

Within the past few months we have lost four of our valued members. Mrs. Anne S. Haines, Mrs. F. B. Warner, Mrs. J. G. Taylor, and Mrs. F. C. Prindle have entered into rest. The breaking of our ranks causes deep and heartfelt sorrow, yet, may the memory of our departed friends stimulate us to work with greater activity "while the day lasts," for out of the land of shadows the summons to "come up higher," is constantly sounding, and "Blessed is that servant whom his Lord, when He cometh, shall find so doing."

The limits of an Annual Report must necessarily exclude many items of interest, but in giving a general outline of the work as carried on in its several departments, we feel that we can still claim the sympathy and co-operation of the public. In our list of Officers and Managers are representatives from over one hundred churches, and while we are striving to "do with our might whatsoever our hands find to do" for the temporal and spiritual welfare of our sisters in tribulation, may we not urge others, into whose hands this Report may fall, to join us in this work. Shall we not soon respond to some of the many urgent calls that come to us from various portions of this great city to establish other places of refuge for young and unprotected women, whose lives of toil may be sweetened by the thought that some one cares for them, and that loving hands, to whom God has given means and opportunity, have prepared a home where they may be shielded from temptation, and find counsel and cheer in their honest endeavors to fight the battle of life.

We will still trust in the same Strong Arm that has led us all the way hitherward, rejoicing that we have been the honored instruments in aiding some struggling souls to shine as lights in His kingdom, where it shall ever be the joy of "His servants to serve Him."

January, 1877.
